New Subscribers.
We are very thankful to our friends from different sections of the county, for increasing the number of our subscription list something over one hundred, during the last three weeks, and respectfully say in the same connection, that it is important that we should have at least five hundred more, to enable us to properly sustain our establishment, and publish such a paper as it is our ambition to do.

We intend to make our paper one, that will be acceptable to any family circle, independent of its politics; and therefore worthy of public patronage. But to our Republican friends we have a special word to say. You pay, in the aggregate, a large portion of the taxes assessed upon your county; but your political organ does not receive one dollar of patronage for county printing. Of this, though in the abstract, perhaps entirely wrong, we do not propose to complain, because all parties are chargeable with the same selfishness; but we speak of it as a condition that makes it necessary that you should subscribe for your county paper, should you feel at all, that your means would justify it, and the paper is worthy. Let us have your aid; our paper is $1.50 if paid within the year.

A GREAT COW.—Can any body beat it? Mr. LUCIUS SMITH, son of JOEL SMITH of Liberty township, called at our office a day or two since, and gave us the following extraordinary statement of the milking of a cow, of about the age of 8 or 9 years, and fresh about 4 weeks' and of the short-horn Durham stock. The first day the milk upon being carefully weighed, was 37 pounds. This day she fed on grass. The second day she fed on grass with the addition of bran slop, and the milk weighed 64 pounds. The first day she was milked twice, the second day three times.

MILITARY.—Company F, made their first appearance on the streets of Lancaster on Friday evening last, under the command of Captain STAFFORD, who has recently been elected, vice Capt. CLORD resigned. The Company made a fine appearance, and the Captain seemed to be in the right place. They are a fine looking set of fellows, and seem determined to come up to the standard of a Company—A. O. 1.

SORGHO MOLASSES.—Christian Beery, of Pleasant township, brought to our office two samples of sorgho molasses, prepared by himself, in which he claims to have overcome the difficulty heretofore existing, in regard to the cornstarch taste, which existed in the molasses manufactured from this cane. We have used the samples, and find them, so far as we can appreciate, entirely free from the unpleasant taste, and quite equal to the best sugar house syrup.

DEATH OF N. H. DENNIS.—Nelson H. DENNIS died suddenly at Brownlow, Iowa, in the month of April. (The exact date not given.) Mr. DENNIS was raised in Fairfield county, and was half brother of John B. Reed, late of Lancaster. He studied the profession of law with H. H. Hunter, Esq. Mr. DENNIS was truly an estimable man, and his death will be deeply lamented.

RESIGNED.—Mr. W. E. DAVIS has resigned his position as Principal, at the State Reform Farm, and will remove to Hamilton county. Mr. DAVIS' resignation will be regretted by his numerous friends, who were just learning to appreciate his worth, as a neighbor and citizen.

STRAWBERRIES.—We acknowledge our obligations to JOSEPH FREMAN Esq., of Pleasant township, for a nice lot of straw berries sent to our office. They were among the finest we have ever seen. He informs us that they were from plants transplanted in April of this spring.

Religious Notice.—The Rev. Prof. WELLEY, of Columbus, will preach next Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, in the English language, in the Ev. Luth. Church, on Mulberry Street, near the Canal.

Old's Store.—In passing the store of Dr. Old's a morning or two since, we noticed a pile of boxes unloaded at the door. New goods we supposed, just arrived from the east.

THEODORE PARKER. the distinguished Unitarian preacher of Boston, is dead. He died abroad, while travelling in Europe.

On motion of Dr. Barlow, the meeting adjourned sine die.

G. MARTIN, Pres't.
C. M. L. WISEMAN, Sec.

W. E. DAVIS Principal of the Ohio State Reform Farm, are sorry to say has resigned. That circumstances should have arisen rendering such a step necessary is a matter of deep regret to all the friends of the institution here.

Mr. DAVIS was a most faithful and thorough officer, and his place cannot be easily supplied. He labored in the institution as a philanthropist, and with an earnest zeal for the good of the youth committed to his care. He will take with him the warmest regards and the kindest wishes of his many friends in our city. We under stand that some of the other officers have also resigned.

GATHERED BUDS AND BLOSSOMS.—Mrs. A. H. DEVELING of this city, has laid on our table a neat little volume of 264 pages bearing the above title, of which she is the authoress. The book is just from the press, and is published by James Challen and Son of Philadelphia. The reputation of this House alone, would be sufficient to give the work a large sale, if any other influence were needed than the literary fame of the authoress.

We have examined the volume closely, and cheerfully commend it to the patronage of the lovers of chaste, moral, and religious literature. Mrs. DEVELING's style of writing is high toned and clear, even to the careless reader. In this volume her subjects are didactic, descriptive, historical and pathetic. The prose is upon familiar topics; and the poems are certainly of a fine order. We read two of the poems, that took hold on our feelings with peculiar force, entitled "Farewell to Summer," and "A Tribute to the Memory of my Mother."

COLUMBUS STREET.—We have tot, for several months, allowed ourselves the pleasure of taking a stroll along Columbus street, until a few days ago. This street is becoming one of the most beautiful walks in the city of Lancaster. Its remoteness from business, and from the noise, smoke and din of the railroad, is one thing; and then its fine decoration with shade trees and green shrubbery from one end to the other, as well as the neatness and taste of the private residences and the smoothness and cleanliness of the sidewalks, invite the pleasure-seekers to walk there in the cool of the day. It is also becoming a very desirable street to reside on.

IMPORTANT TO GUARDIANS.—A law was enacted on the 12th day of April, 1858 with special relation to guardians and wards, of which the following is an extract:

"Third.—To render on oath to the proper court an account of the receipts and expenditures of such guardian, verified by vouchers or proof, at least once in every two years; and failing so to do, he shall receive no allowance for services."
